Messy Church

Messy Church is back! We'd love you and your family to join us on Sunday, 18th January, from 3:30-6pm for our first Messy Church of the year. Our theme this year is Bible Heroes, and there'll be lots of fun for everyone, hands-on crafts, games and activities, songs, a short Bible story, and a meal together. Messy Church is especially great for children and young families, so feel free to bring a friend or invite another family along with you. For more information, please speak to Chris or pick up a flyer from the Link.

The next "Come Dine with Me" will be held on Sunday 18th January at 12.30 pm in the Royal Court Hotel. Please sign up on the sheets in either the Link or Vestibule if you wish to attend.

Points for Prayer

Please pray:

- for Billy Hook and Hayley Foster.

- for those in residential and nursing homes including - Ida Donnelly, Jim Clarke, Doreen McCrum, Pamela Douglas, Ruby Stewart, Irene Hosier, Betty McCaughern, Marie Bradley, Jeanette Mark, David Shaw, Maureen McCaughan & Eileen Glass

Moderator | ‘My soul is downcast within me; therefore I will remember you ... Why, my soul, are you downcast? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Saviour and my God.’ Psalm 42: 6, 11. Pray for those who eagerly anticipate a new year, that in the midst of joy they might see God. And for those struggling with life, in their down times, may they hope in God.

Worship: Part of something bigger | ‘Praise the Lord, all you nations; extol him, all you peoples.’ Psalm 117:1. As we worship today ask God to increase our awareness that we participate in the worship of the worldwide people of God.

Stephen and Angelina Cowan, global mission workers, Kenya | Give thanks for the December youth and children’s camps, not least for the leadership and wide-ranging contribution by the team from Park Road Fellowship, Nairobi. Give thanks for how God’s Spirit was in work in the discipleship of the children and young people, and pray that the gospel seed sown would take deep roots and come to fruition as the year ahead.

The Evangelical Presbyterian Church in Poland (EPCP) | Give thanks for the work and witness of the EPCP. Pray especially for the Christ the Saviour congregation located in Krakow and its pastor, Rev Saško Nezamutdinov. Pray for the various ministries of the congregation, especially the discipleship of children and young people, and the provision of quality Christian literature for those in the wider community who are hungry for God’s Word.

Care staff | Pray for care staff within our residential and nursing facilities as they undertake practical tasks and personal care duties throughout the working day. Specialist end of life care for residents can often be overlooked, but is demanding, both physically and emotionally. Pray for staff providing such care, that although challenging, they will also find it a rewarding experience.

Public Affairs | Give thanks for the many works of compassion and love carried out across PCI on a daily basis, whether in formal settings, or by individual Christians. Pray that, as these are done in response to our Lord’s command to love our neighbour as ourselves, these acts of kindness will be a blessing to many. Pray, too, that they will demonstrate the greatest love of all, that of Jesus for his church.

General Council | Please pray for the planning for the Special Assembly which is due to be held in one month’s time on 17 February. The preparations include the ongoing review of Safeguarding, and of the role of the Clerk of Assembly and General Secretary of PCI. Pray that the Lord would guide in all of these matters.

Training in Ministry | Pray for the Information Day held recently for current ministry applicants. Pray that the sense of call would be made clear through the application process. Pray for discernment and wisdom for the interview panels as together they seek to know the Lord’s guidance and will.
